Singapore Biennale 2025: pure intention

31 Oct 2025 – 29 Mar 2026

Singapore Biennale 2025: pure intention presents contemporary art in multiple venues and public spaces, inviting audiences of all walks of life to experience Singapore's many layers built by all of those who have been a part of its history, collectively creating a city that is as planned as it is full of discovery, surprises and interesting juxtapositions.

Through an exploration of art in everyday environments, audiences will be engaged to see familiar spaces in Singapore with fresh eyes and new perspectives, paying attention to the rituals, histories, lived experiences and aspirations that have shaped our environments and urban lives.

As part of the SG60 celebrations, the Biennale offers Singaporeans an opportunity to reflect on the nation's historic milestones and shared aspirations while imagining possible collective futures.

The Biennale will engage with spaces ranging from pre-colonial and colonial landmarks transformed into public, green areas repurposed for recreation, residential neighbourhoods and lived spaces, to shopping centres that have evolved into social spaces for Singapore's diverse communities.

For more information on Singapore Biennale 2025: pure intention, please visit singaporebiennale.org.

Intention to Wander Trail

1.5Hrs

A trail made for solo wandering. As you move through each artwork, take a moment to slow down, observe, and reflect.

Ⓐ SAM Entrance

Begin your walk outside SAM with CAMP's *Metabolic Container, an installation built from cardboard boxes which reimagines the flow of goods and stories.

Ⓑ Reception Foyer

Step inside SAM and be greeted by Paul Chan's *Khara En Tria (Joyer in 3), where three nylon figures are caught in a playful looping dance, animated by the simple rush of air. What do they feel like to you: playful, restless, or something else?

Ⓒ SAM Gallery 1

Encounter Ming Wong's *Filem–Filem–Filem, a series of digital photographs that trace the faded beauty of old cinemas now replaced by modern complexes. As you wander through the space, think of the places that have disappeared from your own life—and what lingers in their absence.

Towards the back of the gallery, step into Pierre Huyghe's *Offspring and immerse yourself in its play of light, smoke, and sound.

Ⓓ SIP at SAM

Take a break at SIP at SAM. Try one of our sourdough sandwiches or pastries, and enjoy Huang Po-Chih's *Momocha, a kombucha brewed with ingredients from Xinpu, Hsinchu, Taiwan. Can you taste what ingredients were used?

While you rest, explore RRD's *Gastrogeography: Stories from Mexico to Singapore, a collection of zines and sculpted dishes that share stories of food and memory. Notice how these works reveal the ways food binds people and place together. Are there any of your own meals that stand out in your memory? What made them special?

Take a moment to gather your thoughts at the end of today's walk. Did you discover something new about yourself along the way?

Intention to Love Trail

3Hrs

Enjoy a walk with someone you love along the Rail Corridor. Discover old shophouses, market stalls, and art, with photo spots to pause and enjoy the view as the sun sets.

1 Blenheim Court

Step inside and explore the multimedia installations across each floor. Notice how sound and light shift around you—what draws your attention first?

2 Along Rail Corridor

As you walk along the field, look out for the colourful strings of beads, Aya Rodriguez-Izumi's *Gate: 3, created with local communities. Watch them sway in the breeze as you walk hand in hand.

Head in front until you reach the junction. When you see the sign, turn left and walk towards the direction of Woodlands.

3 Continuing along the Rail Corridor, look down the path—do you notice something colourful next to the path? That's Kate Newby's *A Line Through Time, quietly embedded in the landscape. Take this stretch to share a memory with each other.

Continue in the same direction along the Rail Corridor. As you walk, you'll pass by two blue PUB signs on your left. After the second sign, turn left and head up the path into a field.

5 Spot something moving in the distance? That's Two Who Remember the Sea by Apichatpong Weerasethakul and Guo-Liang Tan —silver backdrops drifting in the breeze. Wander around and notice how the scene changes with each step. It's a perfect spot for photos together or simply admiring the view.

4 When you're ready, head back the way you came until you reach a sign pointing to Commonwealth MRT. Follow it and turn left.

As you continue, keep an eye on the benches. Does one look a little different? That's part of Izat Arif's *In Loving Memory. Take a moment to sit and enjoy the serenity.

7 Tanglin Halt: Blk 48

To wrap your day, walk towards the housing blocks on your left, towards Tanglin Halt market. Travel back in time together at Adrian Wong's *With Hate from Hong Kong in Unit #01-337, inspired by classic Hong Kong cinema. Strike a pose—like stars in an old-school film.

Finally, grab a bite at the market or explore the shophouses. Pop into Kian Seng biscuit shop for some old-school gem biscuits and end your journey on a sweet note.

Intention to Explore Trail

2Hrs

Gather your friends and explore a trail that winds through the Civic District's parks and galleries – perfect for discovering artworks and making memories together.

2 Fort Canning Centre

Start your trail with Cian Dayrit's *Feudal Fields series featuring embroidered textiles and mixed-media tapestries, alongside Faysal Altunbozar's *Feeders, a series of wing-like sculptures and birdfeeders. Imaginative and whimsical—a perfect conversation starter.

Time for a little break? Head to Le Jardin (Level 2), a café that brings a touch of Parisian brunch charm to the heart of Singapore.

3 Fort Canning Park

Make your way up to Fort Gate and you'll find Kapwani Kiwanga's *Flowers for Africa: Rwanda awaits—an eucalyptus-covered installation. Under its shade, you might find yourselves sharing stories. What's a memory your group always returns to?

4 Step inside for Jacqueline Kiyomi Gork's *HNZF IV, a fountain where sound shifts depending on where you stand. Listen closely; what does the sound remind you of?

5 Continue towards Raffles House Lawn and encounter Ayesha Singh's *Continuous Coexistences (Singapore), sculptures that look as if they've stepped out of a sketchbook. Do you recognise the iconic buildings the outlines form?

6 Nearby at Fort Canning Lighthouse, discover Light Keeper by lololol. Scan the QR code to begin an audio walk and return after dark to see the light installation come alive.

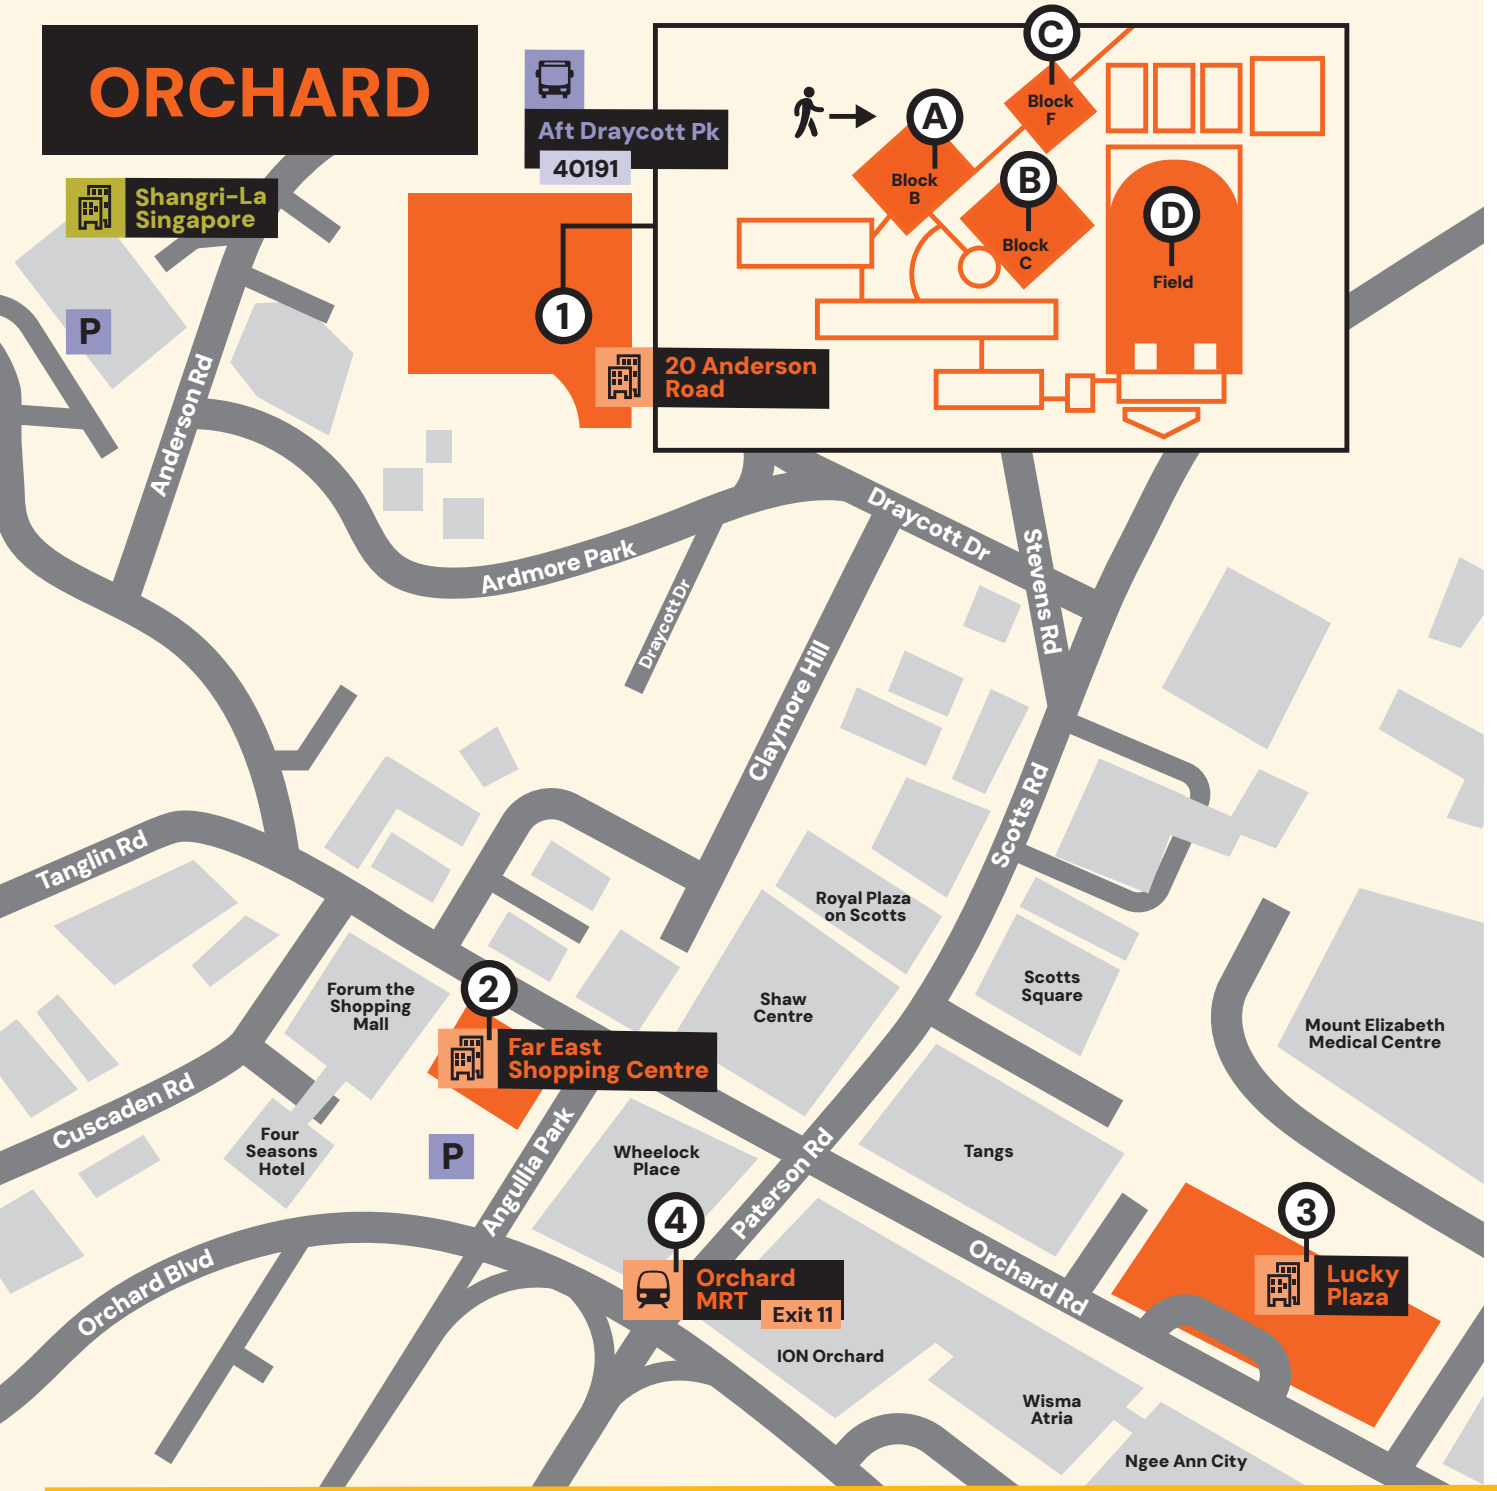

9 The Adelphi

By now, you're all probably hungry. Good news: The Adelphi is just steps away—ideal for a mini café hop. Start with Tony Café's (Level 2) crispy chicken wings, swing by Chef Lai Café (Basement 1) for some chicken rice, and end on a sweet note with King Umar Teh Tarik Café's (Level 1) famous goreng pisang (fried bananas).

10 National Gallery Singapore

Walk over to National Gallery Singapore. Be greeted by Seung-taek Lee's *Earth Play in the Supreme Court Foyer (Level 3), then continue to Ng Teng Fong Roof Garden Gallery (Level 5) for Tuan Andrew Nguyen's *Temple. Tap the bells and chimes and listen to the different sounds they make—try creating your own rhythm.

Before you go, stop by Bakery Brera (Level 1) for a sweet treat. Grab a pastry (or a five), and toast to a day well spent with good art, good food, and even better company.

Intention to Bond Trail

3Hrs

Explore, bond, and learn together as a family. This trail winds from the former Raffles Girls' School campus to the malls along Orchard, filled with art encounters and moments of discovery that make for a lively, curiosity-packed group outing.

1 20 Anderson Road

Wander through the old school grounds at your own pace. Start with Diakron & Emil Rønn Andersen's *7 Summers in the Theatre Workshop on Level 1, then head up to Level 2 to explore Yuyan Wang's *Green Grey Black Brown in the Raffles Room. The work prompts us to reflect on the everyday choices we make at home that affect the environment. Is there something we can do to make a difference?

Make your way down the stairs and turn right, walking across the foyer. As you pass the school hall, continue along the path and head towards the Band Room. Inside, you'll find a trio of playful skeleton animations —Death with Clarinet, Death with Flute, and Death with the Little Bell by Özgür Kar, each "living" inside its own music case and playing a different tune.

After exploring the Band Room, return to the school hall. Pause for a moment and look at the field below: Can you spot the big cat-shaped plant structure? Square Forest by Salad Dressing invites you to imagine what a "forest" might feel or say if it could come alive. Head downstairs for a closer look: what stories do you think the plants are trying to tell?

Once you've finished exploring, it's time to head to Lucky Plaza.

3 Lucky Plaza

At Unit #03-89/90, encounter Tan Pin Pin's *On A Clear Day You Can See Forever. Do you recognise our familiar polar bear, Inuka? Set alongside a drive through Singapore's expressways, the work reflects on movement, stillness, and everyday life in our city.

On the same level at Unit #03-52, sing your hearts out together in Eisa Jocson's *The Filipino Superwoman X H.O.M.E. Karaoke Living Room, in a lively recreation of a typical Filipino living room.

Opposite Eisa's work is Pan de Marie, a Filipino bakery—stop by for some light snacks. If you're looking for a heartier meal, try Filipino comfort food at Kabayan Filipino Restaurant, located just around the corner, or Indonesian fare at Bebek Goreng Pak Ndut on Level 1.

Continue your trail with a short walk to Far East Shopping Centre.

2 Far East Shopping Centre

At Unit #01-10, step into The Packet's *Water Under The Bridge/A Bridge Under Water, a nostalgic re-creation of an internet café frozen in time. Did you know that these cafés were once popular hangouts? Ask your parents if they ever visited!

On Level 4, at Unit #04-08, take a look at Yuri Pattison's *entropy study—miniature building models that glow from within, resembling little apartments lit up at night.

End your day with a nice dinner. If you're in the mood to indulge, try the famous Shashlik Restaurant (Level 6) for Russo-Hainanese fusion food. Or, head over to Tipo Strada at Wheelock Place for freshly made pasta.

Before you go, take a moment to share your favourite part of the trail. Was it the art, the learning, or simply discovering the city together?
